DAVID W. WHITE OUTSTANDING SERVICE IN EDUCATION AWARD

The David W. White Outstanding Service in Education Award is to recognize an individual in the district who demonstrates excellence of character, performance, leadership and service.

Any employee or resident of the Fulton School District is eligible to nominate or be nominated for this award. When nominating someone, consideration should be given to accomplishments, service to youth, community involvement and contributions to the Fulton School District. The completed nomination should profile persons who have demonstrated outstanding performance. Award recipients contribute more than is expected and stand out among peers.

The award is named in honor and memory of David W. White, who was a recipient in 1995 and 2002. Mr. White exemplified all of the attributes of the Outstanding Service in Education Award.

Listed below are those eligible to be nominated:

Educational Personnel - teachers and administrators

Educational Support Personnel - non-teaching professional staff, nurses, secretaries, clerical and classroom aides, transportation, food service, custodians, maintenance, child-care givers

Community Members/Parents – school/coach volunteers, PTO members, community members who have made a significant contribution

The deadline for receiving nominations is Thursday, April 1, 2021. All nominations will be acknowledged by email. A selection committee, consisting of administrators, teachers, support personnel and parents/citizens of the district will choose the award recipient.

Nomination forms will require the name and pertinent information of the person submitting the nomination, the name and pertinent information of the person nominated, along with a list of accomplishments, honors, service to youth, community involvement, contributions to the Fulton School District, personal qualifications, length of service and other supporting comments. Nomination forms will also include an area to describe why the nominator feels this person would be a worthy recipient of the David W. White Outstanding Service in Education Award.

A recognition reception to honor the selected award winner will be held on Wednesday, April 21, 2021, at Fulton High School, beginning at 6:00 p.m.

Nomination forms are available on the FPS website under the Community tab.
